

North Texas

February 2006

Dick and Marilyn Huechteman and family gave the Nelson Children's Center in Denton a special gift recently. They painted all the furniture in the the five- to 10-year-old girls rooms! Each month, volunteers donate more than 300 hours at the Nelson Center. They lead Bible studies, provide art instruction and music therapy, coach basketball and tutor residents in various subjects. If you would like to volunteer, contact Kristy McKinney at (940) 484-8232, or email her at NelsonVolunteer@lsss.org.

The very popular LSS Lenten Calendar will be available again this year. The 18- by 24-inch calendar seeks daily prayers for the children, elderly and poor served by LSS. The free calendars can be ordered by clicking here.

Rebuilding homes and lives in the aftermath of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita will take years. If you or your congregation would like to have hands-on participation in this effort, visit our Web site at www.lsss.org and click on Disaster Response for the latest information. You can also make a monetary donation here or mail a donation to: LSS Disaster Response, P.O. Box 140767, Austin, Texas 78714.

Save the date! The second annual Celebrate La Buena Vida is set for April 27 at the El Paso Club. The event's committee is working out the details for this gala event which benefits the two LSS adult day centers in El Paso. Click here for a look at last year's Celebrate La Buena Vida. Call Peter Nicolou at (915) 598-5403 for more information.

Save the date! Spring Fling, the annual Lubbock gala fund-raiser for LSS ministries on the South Plains of Texas, will be Friday, June 16. As in past years, Spring Fling will be held at the Cap*Rock Winery. Don't miss this great evening of fun, fellowship, food, silent auction and dancing. For more information, call Joy Loper at (806) 741-0459. Sponsorships are available.